(ii) any other work or thing;

rendered reasonably necessary in consequence of any such removal relaying replacing laying or placing as is referred to in this subsection:

Provided that subsections (3) and (4) of section 23 of the Public Utilities Street Works Act 1950 shall so far as applicable extend and apply to any payment to be made by the Company under this subsection as if the Company were the promoting authority as if the works of removing relaying replacing laying or placing apparatus hereinbefore in this subsection mentioned were such undertakers' works as are referred to in the said subsection (3) and as if in that subsection for the words "specified as so necessary in a specification of the works settled under Part I of the Fourth Schedule to this Act or agreed so to be by the promoting authority" there were substituted the words "agreed or settled by arbitration under section 33 (For protection of North Western Electricity Board and North Western Gas Board) of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1956":

(5) Any difference which may arise between the Company and the undertakers under this section shall be referred to and determined by an arbitrator to be appointed by agreement between the Company and the undertakers or in default of agreement by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers on the application of either party after notice in writing to the other party.

In settling any difference under this section the arbitrator may if he thinks fit require the Company to execute any temporary or other works so as to avoid so far as may be reasonably possible interference with any purpose for which any apparatus is used.

For protection of Urmston Urban District Council.

34. For the protection of the urban district council of Urmston (in this section referred to as "the council") the following provisions shall unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Company and the council apply and have effect:—

(1) In this section unless the subject or context otherwise requires—

"apparatus" means sewers, drains or other apparatus connected therewith belonging to or maintained by the council and includes any works constructed for the lodging therein of apparatus;

"in" in a context referring to apparatus includes under, over, across, along or upon;

"position" includes depth.

(2) The Company shall give three months' notice to the council of their intention to exercise the powers of section 17 (Power to stop up part of Barton Road) of this Act and if the said road is stopped up the council shall notwithstanding such stopping up continue to have the same powers and rights in or in respect of any apparatus remaining in the land comprised in the said part of the said road so stopped up as they had immediately before such stopping up or may if they give notice to the Company within the said period of three months and if reasonably so required by the Company shall—

(a) remove the apparatus and relay or replace the same in such other position as may be reasonable; or

(b) provide and lay or place other apparatus in such other position as aforesaid in lieu of such existing apparatus:

(3) If the Company do not stop up Barton Road within one month after the expiration of the period of three months referred to in subsection (2) of this section the notice given by the Company under the said subsection shall be null and void and the said road shall not be stopped up until a further similar notice shall have been given to the council and shall have been acted upon by the Company:
(4) The Company shall repay to the council—

(a) the reasonable expenses incurred by the council of or in connection with any removal and relaying or replacing of apparatus and any provision and laying or placing of new apparatus which may be rendered reasonably necessary in consequence of a requirement of the Company under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section or of any operations of the Company in or near the said part of Barton Boad; and

(b) the reasonable costs of and incidental to—

(i) the cutting off of any apparatus from any other apparatus; and

(ii) any other work or thing;

rendered reasonably necessary in consequence of any such removal relaying replacing laying or placing as is referred to in this subsection:

Provided that subsections (3) and (4) of section 23 of the Public Utilities Street Works Act 1950 shall so far as applicable extend and apply to any payment to be made by the Company under this subsection as if the Company were the promoting authority as if the works of removing relaying replacing laying or placing apparatus hereinbefore in this subsection mentioned were such undertakers' works as are referred to in the said subsection (3) and as if in that subsection for the words "specified as so necessary in a specification of the works settled under Part I of the Fourth Schedule to this Act or agreed so to be by the promoting authority" there were substituted the words "agreed or settled by arbitration under section 34 (For protection of Urmston Urban District Council) of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1956":

(5) Any difference which may arise between the Company and the council under this section shall be referred to and determined by an arbitrator to be appointed by agreement between the Company and the council or in default of agreement by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers on the application of either party after notice in writing to the other party.

In settling any difference under this section the arbitrator may if he thinks fit require the Company to execute any temporary or other works so as to avoid so far as may be reasonably possible interference with any purpose for which any apparatus is used.
Increase of ship canal rates.

35.—(1) The maximum ship canal rates are hereby respectively increased by an amount equal to twenty per centum of the respective amounts thereof and the Company may levy or charge such increased rates accordingly.

(2) In and for the purposes of this section the expression “the maximum ship canal rates” means the dues tolls rates and charges which the Company were immediately before the date of the passing of this Act authorised to levy or charge in connection with the undertaking by virtue of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1919 as amended by the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1933 and the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1950 but does not include the maximum Bridgewater rates or the maximum railway rates as respectively defined in the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1952.

Power to Company to borrow.

Debenture stock.

36. The Company in addition to any moneys which they are at the passing of this Act authorised to borrow may with the consent of the lord mayor aldermen and citizens of the city of Manchester under their common seal at any time or times after the passing of this Act borrow on mortgage of the undertaking any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole five million pounds.

37. The Company may in respect of the powers of borrowing conferred upon them by section 36 (Power to Company to borrow) of this Act create and issue debenture stock subject to the provisions of Part III of the Companies Clauses Act 1863 as amended by subsequent Acts but notwithstanding anything therein contained the interest on all debenture stock at any time after the passing of this Act created and issued by the Company under the powers of this section shall have priority over all principal moneys secured by mortgages granted by the Company under the powers of the said section 36 of this Act.

Rights of holders of redeemable debenture stock in relation to principal.

38. The holders of debenture stock created by the Company under the powers of this Act or any other Act whether passed before or after the passing of this Act and issued under the powers of section 4 (Redeemable debenture stock) of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1928 so as to be redeemable shall have the like rights and priorities in relation to and for securing or enforcing the payment of the principal moneys repayable on the redemption of that stock as if they were mortgagees of the undertaking under a mortgage granted by the Company under the Act under which such redeemable debenture stock is created.
39. All mortgages granted by the Company under the powers of section 36 (Power to Company to borrow) of this Act shall rank pari passu with all mortgages granted by the Company under the powers of section 9 (Power to Company to borrow and to Corporation to lend further money) of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1913 or section 4 (Additional borrowing powers on mortgage of undertaking) of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1925 or section 43 (Power to Company to borrow) of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1949 and notwithstanding anything contained in Part III of the Companies Clauses Act 1863 the interest on such first-mentioned mortgages and on all debenture stock created and issued by the Company under the powers of section 37 (Debenture stock) of this Act shall rank pari passu with the interest on all mortgages granted under the powers of the said section 9 or the said section 4 or the said section 43 and on all debenture stock issued by the Company under the powers of section 10 (Debenture stock) of the said Act of 1913 or of section 5 (Power to issue debenture stock in respect of power of borrowing on mortgage of undertaking) of the said Act of 1925 or section 44 (Debenture stock) of the said Act of 1949.

40. Except as by this Act expressly provided nothing therein shall alter or affect any right or priority—

(a) of any mortgages granted or to be granted; or

(b) attaching to the interest on any such mortgages or on any debenture stock issued or to be issued; or existing by virtue of any Act passed before the passing of this Act.

(c) of the mortgagees under any such mortgages or of the holders of any such debenture stock;

41. All mortgages and certificates of debenture stock issued under the powers of this Act shall be endorsed with notice of the provisions of section 37 (Debenture stock) section 38 (Rights of holders of redeemable debenture stock in relation to principal) and section 39 (As to ranking of mortgages and interest on debenture stock) of this Act.

42. It shall not be lawful to exercise the powers of borrowing conferred by this Act otherwise than in compliance with the provisions of any order for the time being in force made under section 1 of the Borrowing (Control and Guarantees) Act 1946.

43. All moneys raised by the Company under the powers of this Act shall be applied only to purposes of the Company to which capital is properly applicable.

44. The Company may apply to the purposes of this Act to which capital is properly applicable any of the moneys which they have in hand or which they are empowered by this Act.
PART IV

Signing of declarations of Company on securities under section 14 of Railway Companies Securities Act 1866.

45. Any declaration put after the passing of this Act pursuant to section 14 of the Railway Companies Securities Act 1866 as amended by the Railway Companies (Accounts and Returns) Act 1911 upon any mortgage deed or bond made or given or upon any certificate for debenture stock issued by the Company shall be deemed to have been signed by the two directors and the secretary or other officer of the Company who attested the affixing of the common seal of the Company to such deed bond or certificate and such directors and secretary or officer shall be deemed respectively to be the persons who pursuant to the said section 14 as amended as aforesaid are required to sign such declaration.

PART V
SUPERANNUATION

Investment of superannuation fund.

46.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in section 10 (Securities for investment of fund) of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1945 investments made by the trustees under Part II (Superannuation fund) of that Act may be made in such securities or investments as the committee may from time to time by resolution determine and the Company may approve:

Provided that no investment shall be made in or upon any ordinary shares or stock of any company—

(i) unless such company shall have paid dividends thereon at the rate of at least five per centum per annum for not less than four years prior to the date of investment;

(ii) unless such ordinary shares or stock are at the time of making the investment quoted on the London Stock Exchange; and

(iii) so long as the value of all ordinary shares or stock forming part of the fund established pursuant to the Manchester Ship Canal (Staff Superannuation) Act 1926 for the purposes of the scheme scheduled to that Act as amended by subsequent Acts equals or exceeds one-quarter of the total value of the assets of that fund.

(2) Section 12 (Variation of investments) of the said Act of 1945 shall have effect as if in subsection (1) thereof for the words “hereinbefore authorised” there were substituted the words “authorised by a resolution of the committee for the purpose”.

(3) In this section the expressions “the trustees” and “the committee” have the same respective meanings as in Part II of the said Act of 1945.
47.—(1) In addition and without prejudice to any other powers exercisable by the Company, the Company may from time to time by agreement with any of their salaried officers or servants for the time being in their employment within the meaning of the scheme scheduled to the Manchester Ship Canal (Staff Superannuation) Act 1926 or any amendment thereof make and carry into effect a scheme or schemes for the granting of pensions or other benefits to the widows, children or dependants of such officers or servants.

(2) The Company may apply their funds and revenues for the purposes of any scheme made under the powers of this section and may make any payments which may from time to time be necessary to secure the solvency of any fund which may be created under such scheme.

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS

48. Section 31 (Qualification of directors) of the Manchester Ship Canal (General Powers) Act 1926 shall have effect as if for the reference therein to two thousand shares in the capital of the Company there were substituted a reference to one thousand shares in the capital of the Company.

49. The powers of the Company of making byelaws under section 83 of the Harbours Act 1847 as incorporated with the Act of 1885 shall extend so as to enable the Company to make byelaws prescribing the lights and signals to be exhibited on board vessels whilst in the harbour or such part thereof as may be specified in the byelaws.

50.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Confirmation enactment section 83 of the Harbours Act 1847 shall not apply in relation to any byelaws made by the Company under any enactment incorporating that section or under this Act but no such byelaws except such as relate solely to the Company or their officers or servants shall have any force or effect unless and until they have been confirmed by the Minister.

(2) Any byelaws which were made by the Company before the date of the passing of this Act and confirmed by the Board of Trade or the Minister (as the case may be) and which were not revoked before that date shall have full force and effect as if the provisions of subsection (1) of this section had been in force at the date on which the byelaws were so confirmed and as if the reference to the Minister in the said provisions included a reference to the Board of Trade.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prejudice or affect the operation of the provisions of section 198 (Additional byelaws) of the Act of 1885 relating to the sanctioning by the commissioners of customs and excise of byelaws relating to transit sheds or bonded warehouses and such byelaws shall only have force and effect so long as such sanction shall continue.

51. Section 52 of the Harbours Act 1847 in its application to the Company and the harbour master shall extend so as to empower the harbour master to prohibit the entry into the harbour of vessels designed to carry liquid cargo in bulk if the entry is only for the purpose of cleaning their tanks.

52. Section 4 (Deepening canal by raising water level (Eastham Locks to Latchford)) of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1904 shall have effect as if for the reference in paragraph (1) thereof to two feet there were substituted a reference to four feet.

53.—(1) On and after the first day of January nineteen hundred and fifty-seven it shall not be lawful without the written permission of the Company for any tug or barge to enter or use the harbour or to be worked or navigated therein unless it is for the time being registered by the Company.

(2) The Company shall as soon as practicable after the receipt of an application in a form prescribed by them register any tug or barge—

(i) which is classed by Lloyds Register of Shipping the British Corporation Register of Shipping and Aircraft or the British Committee of the Bureau Veritas; or

(ii) in respect of which there shall be produced to the Company a certificate in a form prescribed by the Company and made by any surveyor of shipping for the time being approved by the Company that the tug or barge is seaworthy and suitable for the purpose for which the same is built designed or fitted or intended or likely to be used.

(3) If at any time it shall appear to the Company that any tug or barge which has been registered pursuant to subsection (2) of this section may have become unseaworthy or unsuitable for the purpose for which the same is used or for which it is built designed or fitted or intended or likely to be used the Company may after sending by registered post addressed to the owner of such tug or barge at the address of such owner last notified to the Company notice of their intention so to do cancel the registration of the tug or barge unless within one month from the sending of such notice there shall be produced to the Company—

(i) a certificate that the tug or barge has remained classed by Lloyds Register of Shipping the British Corporation Register of Shipping and Aircraft or the British Committee of the Bureau Veritas; or

(ii) a certificate in a form prescribed by the Company and made by any surveyor of shipping for the time being approved by the Company that the tug or barge is seaworthy and suitable for the purpose for which the same is used or for which it is built designed or fitted or intended or likely to be used.

(4) If any tug or barge shall enter or use the harbour or be worked or navigated therein in contravention of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section the owner of such tug or barge shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

(5) All offences against this section and all penalties imposed or recoverable under this section may be prosecuted or recovered in a summary manner.

(6) In this section—
“ barge ” includes a lighter flat or other like vessel;
“ tug ” means any vessel built designed or fitted for the purpose of towing ships or barges and includes a tender;
“ surveyor of shipping ” includes a surveyor or builder of tugs or barges.

(7) The Company shall as soon as practicable after the passing of this Act cause public notice to be given of the effect of this section (including the date when it comes into force) by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the city of Manchester and otherwise in such manner as the Company think sufficient Copies of the newspaper containing the advertisement shall be sufficient evidence of compliance with the provisions of this subsection.

54.—(1) The Company shall not maintain the water in the canal between Eastham Locks and Latchford Locks above the level authorised by section 4 (Deepening canal by raising water level (Eastham Locks to Latchford)) of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1904 as amended by section 52 (Amendment of section 4 of Manchester Ship Canal Act 1904) of this Act.

(2) If upon consideration of any report issued by the Hydraulics Research Board of the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research upon the completion or during the course of the investigation which at the date of the passing of this Act is being made by such board in relation to the river Mersey the Minister has reason to believe that the maintenance of water in the canal between Eastham Locks and Latchford Locks above the level authorised by the said section 4 of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1904 as originally enacted has caused or is likely to cause any injury to the estuary of the river Mersey or any of the approaches thereto or to the bar or has affected or is likely to affect prejudicially any anchorage mooring ground or landing stage within the jurisdiction of the Minister as successor to the

Mersey Commissioners as defined in the Act of 1885 or the access to any dock or in any way has caused or is likely to cause injury to the navigation or to the due working of any ferry within that jurisdiction he may if he thinks it in the public interest so to do after consultation with such bodies or persons as appear to him to be appropriate including the Company and the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board from time to time direct the Company to reduce either permanently or temporarily the level at which water is maintained in the canal between Eastham Locks and Latchford Locks but not below the level authorised by the said section 4 of the Manchester Ship Canal Act 1904 as originally enacted and the Company shall comply with any such direction.

For protection of British Transport Commission.

55. For the protection of the British Transport Commission (in this section referred to as "the commission") the following provisions shall unless otherwise agreed in writing between the commission and the Company apply and have effect:

(1) As and when the commission reconstruct or recondition their existing sluices at Sutton they may erect or cause to be erected an additional sluice or sluices with all machinery necessary for the complete working of the same of a capacity sufficient to offset any reduction of the total discharge capacity of the commission's existing sluices and weir at Sutton and Frodsham due to the exercise by the Company of the powers conferred upon them by section 52 (Amendment of section 4 of Manchester Ship Canal Act 1904) of this Act such capacity and the design dimensions and position or positions of such additional sluice or sluices and machinery to be agreed between the respective engineers of the commission and the Company (or in default of agreement to be determined by arbitration in manner hereinafter provided) and the Company shall repay to the commission the capital cost of such additional sluice or sluices and machinery together with any cost incurred by the commission in working or maintaining such additional sluice or sluices and machinery:

(2) Any question or difference which may arise between the commission and the Company under this section shall be referred to and determined by a single arbitrator to be appointed in default of agreement by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers on the application of either party (made after notice in writing to the other) and subject as aforesaid the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1950 shall apply to any such reference.

For protection of occupiers of Sutton Mills.

56. For the protection of Chester Farmers Limited or other the occupiers for the time being of Sutton Mills near Frodsham Bridge in the rural district of Runcorn in the county of Chester
(in this section referred to as "the occupiers") the following provisions shall except as may be otherwise agreed in writing between the Company and the occupiers apply and have effect:

1) The Company shall for the purpose of preserving access to the landing berth at the said Sutton Mills at all times after the passing of this Act at their sole expense and cost maintain by dredging or otherwise a channel not less than fifty feet wide and eight feet deep from Weston Marsh Lock to the said landing berth so as to afford access along such channel through the canal to the river Mersey:

2) Nothing in this section shall be in derogation of the provisions of any other enactment which ensure for the protection of the occupiers or of the owners for the time being of the said Sutton Mills:

3) Any difference arising between the Company and the occupiers under this section shall be referred to and determined by an arbitrator to be agreed upon between the Company and the occupiers or in default of agreement to be appointed on the application of either of them after notice in writing to the other of them by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers and subject as aforesaid the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1950 shall apply to any such reference and determination.

57. This Act shall be deemed to be an enactment passed before and in force at the passing of the Town and Country Planning Act 1947 for the purposes of subsection (4) of section 13 and subsection (1) of section 118 of that Act.

58. Nothing in this Act affects prejudicially any estate right, power, privilege or exemption of the Crown and in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing nothing herein contained authorises the Company to take use or in any manner interfere with any portion of the shore or bed of the sea or of any river channel, creek, bay or estuary or any land hereditaments subjects or rights of whatsoever description belonging to Her Majesty in right of Her Crown and under the management of the Commissioners of Crown Lands without the consent in writing of those commissioners on behalf of Her Majesty first had and obtained for that purpose.

59. All the costs, charges and expenses preliminary to and of obtaining and passing of this Act or otherwise in relation thereto shall be paid by the Company.
